

One notable wedding in 2017 featured a transformation of the main hall into a magical woodland setting with a voile canopy, living plants, trees and bushes along with a sculptured artificial tree and mood lighting.

It looked wonderful!

The happy couple were delighted with the result and very grateful that the Centre went the extra mile to create their special occasion as they pictured it.

